

JULY - A MONTH OF CELEBRATIONS

The seventh month of the Gregorian year is named in honor of Julius Caesar. There are many celebrations in July such as Independence Day on July 4th, World Chocolate Day on July 7th and National Hammock Day on July 22nd. We should all plan to be lounging in a hammock, eating chocolates and watching the fireworks. After the past few months we deserve it ...wouldn't you agree? Also, the full moon this month is on July 4th and is called the " Buck Moon" because during this time new antlers emerge from bucks' foreheads. It was also called "Thunder Moon" since thunderstorms are so frequent in July. Who knew?

Congratulations to Carol and Dan Luehrs on the birth of their first granddaughter, Kathleen Mae. She was born on June 18th weighing 8lbs11ozs and 21.5 inches long. Mom Megan and Kathleen are doing great.

SUMMER FUN FACT: Otters hold hands with one another while they're relaxing in the water so they don't float away from the rest of the group. So much for social distancing.
